

In the News

Herald buys specialist facilities firm

Learn about Herald's acquisition of a specialist facilities firm. This article highlights the strategic move, its potential to expand Herald's capabilities, and what it means for the company's growth in the facilities management sector.

Read more

EPIC Business Essentials Announces Strategic Contract Award with the State of Louisiana through OMNIA Partners

Discover how EBE and OMNIA Partners secured a State of Louisiana contract award. This announcement highlights the collaboration's benefits and its potential impact on procurement efficiencies for state agencies.

Read more

Akers assumes Ed Market role

Learn about Akers stepping into a new leadership role at EDmarket. This article highlights his vision for the organization and what his appointment means for the education market industry.

Read more

Rise in US health benefit costs to accelerate to 10.2% next year: WTW

U.S. health benefit costs are projected to rise sharply in 2025, according to WTW. This article examines the factors driving the increase and what it means for employers and employees navigating healthcare expenses.

Read more

Furniture

Wayfair.com Partners with Staples to Power e-Marketplace

Wayfair.com has partnered with Staples to enhance its e-marketplace capabilities. This collaboration aims to expand product offerings and streamline the shopping experience for customers across both platforms.

Read more

COE Distributing Announces 100% Employee Ownership

COE Distributing has announced its transition to 100% employee ownership. This milestone reflects the company's commitment to its workforce and positions employees as key stakeholders in its future success.

Read more

Technology

Amazon reportedly wants drivers to wear AR glasses for improved efficiency until robots can take over

Amazon is reportedly exploring AR glasses for drivers to boost delivery efficiency. This move highlights the company's push for innovation in logistics, while hinting at its long-term plans for automation with robots.

Read more

Introducing the 2025 Quarter 1 Clover Imaging Partner Marketing Calendar

Check out Clover Imaging's 2025 Q1 Partner Marketing Calendar. This resource provides a roadmap of promotional opportunities and marketing strategies to support partner success in the upcoming quarter.

Read more

Advocacy Alerts

Legislative Update - WSA Scores Major Legal Victory

Stay informed with the latest Legislative Update from December 3, 2024. This briefing covers key policy developments and their potential impact on the cleaning and facilities management industries.

Read more

Department of Labor (DOL) Notice of Appeal From Overtime Ruling

Learn about the Department of Labor's notice of appeal on the recent overtime ruling. This article outlines the case's implications for employers and employees as the legal process continues.

Read more

Merchants Payments Coalition | Credit Card 'Swipe' Fees Could Cost Consumers Over $20 Billion During Holiday Season Shopping

The article discusses how credit card swipe fees could cost consumers over $20 billion during the holiday shopping season. It highlights concerns about the increasing cost of these fees and their impact on consumer spending, especially during peak shopping periods.

Read more

ISSA Updates

ISSA 2024 show recap – Convened more than 12,000 Registered Industry Professionals

The ISSA Show North America focuses on enhancing global cleaning, facility solutions, and public health standards. This annual event serves as a platform for industry leaders to showcase innovations, share insights, and improve practices in cleaning and hygiene. Attendees gain valuable knowledge on sustainable solutions and technology, while strengthening their networks.

Read more

Fellowes Highlights Indoor Air Quality Solutions for Clean Air this Cold & Flu Season

Fellowes is highlighting indoor air quality solutions designed to combat airborne contaminants during the cold and flu season. The company's offerings focus on improving air quality in both residential and workplace settings, providing effective filtration systems to help reduce the spread of illness. These solutions aim to promote healthier environments, especially during flu season.

Read more

Smart Business Source

Use these 10 Fitness Strategies to Thrive in the Workplace

The article offers 10 fitness strategies to help employees thrive in the workplace, emphasizing the importance of staying active and healthy. It highlights tips like incorporating short breaks for stretching, adopting ergonomic workstations, and practicing mindfulness. These strategies are designed to improve both physical and mental well-being, ultimately boosting productivity.

Read more

Half of Companies Admit Their Pay Programs are Ineffective

A Willis Towers Watson survey reveals that half of companies admit their pay programs are ineffective. The survey highlights how misaligned compensation strategies can impact talent retention and employee satisfaction. The results suggest that businesses need to rethink their approaches to compensation to stay competitive in a challenging labor market.

Read more